PREMIER FLOOR
GALACTIC TIDES

CODE

This design captures the essence of modern technology through a rich, multi-dimensional surface that invites both visual and tactile exploration.

The textures and interwoven lines symbolized the binary language of computers, while the shifting hues of Grey and beige mirrored the constant flux of information. With closer observation, the design reveals a hidden harmony - a visual representation of the structured chaos that governs the digital age

COSMIC

A complex interplay of raised and recessed pattens, creating a sensation of depth and movement reminiscent of drifting through the cosmos.

The collection reveals a sophisticated play and textures that mimic the vastness of space. The overall effect is one quite elegance, evoking the vast, tranquil beauty of the universe without relying on literal imagery.
COSTA

"Costa" captures the essence of coastal landscapes through its rich textures and nuanced textures, offering a sensory experience that evokes the serene beauty of the shore without relying on literal imagery.

The design of "Costa" is sophisticate interplay of tactile elements that suggest the gentle ebb and flow of the tide. Its surface features a harmonious blend of smooth and textured areas, creating a sensation akin to walking on sandy shored of feeling the caress of ocean waves.
